MAKING VINYL EUROPE

Haarlem, Netherlands

September 24 - 26, 2025

Nestled in Greater Amsterdam, the Making Vinyl Europe Conference is set to electrify Haarlem on September 24 - 26, 2025, as a dazzling extension of the acclaimed Making Vinyl event held in Memphis just months prior. Serving as a sister event to the iconic gathering in the USA, Making Vinyl Europe promises an exhilarating immersion into the global resurgence of vinyl culture.

Vinyl enthusiasts, industry leaders, and music aficionados are invited to mark their calendars for this unforgettable occasion. You make records, you are a mastering or cutting engineer, an artist, a label, a journalist or record store owner? You distribute vinyl records? You are a collector, and you love vinyl records? This event is for you! At this event, attendees will discover a symphony of engaging panel discussions, insightful workshops, and captivating keynote speeches. From mastering to the art of pressing to navigating distribution channels, attendees will gain valuable insights from a diverse lineup of speakers, empowering them to navigate the ever-evolving vinyl industry with confidence and creativity.

More than just a business gathering, Making Vinyl Europe offers an opportunity to celebrate the soul-stirring power of music and the enduring legacy of vinyl. Live performances, interactive exhibits, and exclusive vinyl releases allow attendees to connect with like-minded enthusiasts from across the globe.

The organizing team is thrilled to host the event for the third time in Haarlem and eagerly anticipates welcoming attendees to this dynamic and culturally rich city. Keep an eye on makingvinyl.com for upcoming details about the event, including ticket sales, program highlights, and more.
